

Chapter 31 Review

1. A person is at high-risk for HIV infection if he or she
2. The ability of the immune system to fight pathogens decreases when HIV infects and destroys
3. It takes from two weeks to _____ for the body to produce antibodies following infection with HIV.
4. In suspected cases of HIV infection, there are _____ of testing
5. HIV belongs to a family of viruses called _____
6. An outbreak of infectious disease of global proportions is a(n) _____
7. the first test performed to check for HIV infection is _____
8. the second test performed to check for HIV infection is _____
9. the earliest phase of HIV infection is _____
10. infected with HIV is _____
11. infections and diseases that do not usually produce illness in healthy people are _____
12. _____ is the final stage of infection with HIV.
13. _____ is known to be transmitted only through semen, blood, vaginal secretions, and breast milk.
14. The use of _____ is a high risk behavior for HIV infection.
15. The decrease in the number of _____ by HIV reduces the body's ability to fight pathogens.