

1. _____ is an outbreak of an infectious disease that affects a large population.
2. Why are STD's often referred to as the "silent" epidemic? _____
3. How many sexually active teens will contract a STD? _____
4. List three reasons why teens as a group are at particularly high risk for infection from an STD.
a. _____ b. _____
c. _____
5. List four general long-term consequences for teens if they contract a STD?
a. _____ b. _____
c. _____ d. _____
6. Why is practicing abstinence a good choice for a teen?

7. List two symptoms of chlamydia in males.
a. _____ b. _____
8. List two long-term effects if chlamydia is not treated.
a. _____ b. _____
9. List four symptoms of gonorrhea in females.
a. _____ b. _____ c. _____ d. _____
10. What is the treatment for chlamydia and gonorrhea? _____
11. List three symptoms of trichomoniasis in a female.
a. _____ b. _____ c. _____
12. _____ are pink or reddish with cauliflowerlike tops that appear in the genitals.
13. What is the long-term consequence of genital warts in women? _____
14. _____ causes painful, blisterlike sores in the genital area.
15. What is the treatment for genital herpes? _____
16. What should a person do, who has herpes, to avoid infecting another person?

17. What is the difference about syphilis when compared to other STD's? _____
18. _____ is the painless, reddish sore usually in the genital region and is the first sign of syphilis.
19. List four symptoms of the secondary stage of syphilis.
a. _____ b. _____
c. _____ d. _____
20. List four long-term consequences if syphilis is left untreated.
a. _____ b. _____
c. _____ d. _____
21. What is the main symptom of pubic lice? _____
22. List three symptoms of candidiasis.
a. _____ b. _____ c. _____